Name: William Willoughby Francis, 1878-1959

W.W. Francis Fonds. – 1929-1959. – 185 cm of textual records.

Biographical Sketch: Born in Montreal in 1878, William Willoughby Francis received his medical degree from Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore in 1902. After interning at Montreal's Royal Victoria Hospital and pursuing post-graduate studies in Europe, Francis returned to Montreal where he opened a practice in 1906. Poor health forced him to leave the practice, and he then became editor of the Canadian Medical Association Journal. During the war, he was Registrar of the No. 3 Canadian General Hospital in France. When Francis' second cousin Sir William Osler passed away in 1919, Osler donated his library to McGill University, appointing Francis as its curator. Francis co-edited the catalogue of Sir William Osler's library, the Bibliotheca Osleriana, and ran the Osler Library of the History of Medicine until his death in 1959.

Custodial History: This fonds was generated by W.W. Francis during his time as the Osler Librarian.

Scope and Content: The fonds contains correspondence related to the Osler Library and its holdings with people such as Maude Abbott, Edward Archibald, William B. Bean, Edward Horton Bensley, Archibald Malloch, Casey Wood, and John Farquhar Fulton, Keeper of the Medical History Collections at Yale University's Historical Library; the fonds also contains a typescript of talks by W.W. Francis (titled "Showman's Patter") about books and other items held in the Osler Library.

Source of supplied title proper: Title based on the documents in the fonds.

Language: The documents are in English.

Finding Aids: Inventory list and subject catalogue available.
